

Web Design and Hosting...and More!

Shuta Multimedia is a web design, graphics, photography and videography company founded in 1996. Located in Olyphant, a small town near Scranton, PA, our service area is limited only by the reach of the world wide web. If you can read this, we can help you.

We are dedicated to giving you the web presence that is so critical in today's business atmosphere. More and more people are looking to the internet as their prime source of information. When they seek services, they look first to the world wide web. To be competitive, you need to be where the people are looking. Shuta Multimedia can put you there.

Consider us if you need:

- A new web site
 - Managed Website Hosting
 - Custom Graphic, Photographic, or Video Work
- A Blog or Frequently Updated Website
- A Web Store or E-commerce Website
- A Fully Developed Web Presence Including Facebook, LinkedIn, Myspace, Twitter, and Youtube Pages to Compliment Your Website.

Many people still think that having a professional website is an unattainable dream. Shuta Multimedia has been helping people realize this dream since 1996. Not only is it an attainable dream, but it's far more affordable than you'd expect. Do you dream in color?
